

Lee's Of Leesylvania

Date: January 28, 2012

Time: 11:00am-4:00pm

Location: Visitor Center

Come to the park to learn about "Light Horse Harry" Lee, Revolutionary War hero and father of Confederate General Robert E. Lee, as we celebrate his family's rich history. Tour the land of his birth, visit our museum and speak with knowledgeable park staff about his accomplishments. Performers will be on-hand to showcase life was during colonial times with historic dress, displays and traditions.

- 11:00 a.m. - Michael Cecere will give a lecture on the Lee's of Leesylvania – a local Historian, Author, Teacher, Revolutionary War re-enactor, and President of the Board of Historic Dumfries Virginia, Inc. Don't forget to get your books autographed.
- Through out the day—First Virginia Regiment firing, marching, and horse demonstrations. The First Virginia Regiment of the Continental Line is a Revolutionary War living history reenactment group. The organization is composed of volunteers who authentically clothe and equip themselves to portray the soldiers and families of this historic military unit. (Taken from www.1va.org )
- Revolutionary War Cooking—Come into the Visitor Center to taste the flavors of the Revolutionary War. Foods will be available to sample for $2.00.

For more information call (703)583-6904 or email at

leesylvaniavc@dcr.virginia.gov